2. (i.) Recruits enlisted for the above-mentioned battalions will undergo preliminary training for a period of months, and such preliminary training will take place on enlistment.

(ii.) It will, however, be optional for the following seven battalions, whose custom has been to conduct recruits' drills immediately before the annual training, either to apply the same principle to the six months' preliminary drill or to adopt the above procedure :—

4. Recruits will be required to attend the annual training if it commences more than three months after the completion of the preliminary training.

In such cases the brigadier-general commanding grouped regimental districts will arrange that the prescribed musketry course be completed prior to the annual training. This course will not exceed a period of 4 weeks.

7. Recruits who cannot be accommodated in existing barracks will be billeted, or, if the time of the year be suitable, placed under canvas.

8. Recruits may, at the discretion of the commanding officer, be allowed to live at their homes and be granted lodging allowance under paragraph 502, Militia Regulations.

9. Each recruit who completes the 5 or 6 months' drill above referred to, will be entitled to a bounty of 11. under conditions similar to those contained in paragraphs 367-370, Militia Regulations. This bounty will also be granted to those recruits who fail to complete this drill by reason of sickness; but no bounty will be granted to men who are discharged for misconduct or on account of sickness brought about by their own action.

10. Officers commanding battalions in which the recruits' drills is carried out—

On enlistment.

(i.) Will furnish one major or captain, and one captain or subaltern, who will be called up on 1st September, 1906, for one year.

11. Additional officers may be called up whenever the number of recruits exceeds 75, in the proportion of an officer for every 50 additional recruits, instead of for each 75, as laid down in paragraphs 190 and 191, Militia Regulations.

12. Officers commanding may inspect the recruits of their battalions at any time, but travelling expenses, within the area of the county, will only be granted for four visits annually.

13. Two pairs of boots will be issued to each recruit for his preliminary drill and first annual training.

14. (i.) The period of annual training will be 41 days. (ii.) Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, Colonel E. L. F. Jennings, M.V.O., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Superintendent Miss S. Anderson, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average three candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

MILITARY WIDOWS' FUND, BRITISH SERVICE.

(Late Queen's Military Widows' Fund.)

The Military Widows' Fund, British Service, was established in 1820 to alleviate the distress of families of officers of the British Service and to enable them to return to England without unnecessary delay. Whenever an officer of the British Service, who is a subscriber to this Fund, dies, his family receives at once, the following assistance, namely:—Six months maintenance allowance ranging from Rs. 2,400/ to Rs. 3,600/, according to rate subscribed, plus Rs. 1,500/ for passage for the widow, plus Rs. 500/ or Rs. 300/ for passage for each child, according to whether it is over or under 12 years of age. These benefits are secured by a small subscription of Rs. 4, 3, or 2 per mensem, which is regulated by the amount of pay an officer draws. An officer, immediately on becoming a subscriber, secures at once for his wife and children, quite irrespective of length of service in India, the full benefits of the Fund in case of his death.

In 1902 the sum of Rs. 31,200/ was paid in awards to families of deceased subscribers; and the total amount paid since the establishment of the Fund in 1820 exceeds Rs. 22,00,000/.

Copies of the Regulations of the Fund can be obtained from the Honorary Secretary at Simla.
